POLICY:

It shall be the policy of the Truro Police Department that officers and civilian personnel wear such uniforms and be issued such equipment as the Chief of Police may, from time to time, prescribe. All personnel should present a good physical appearance at all times and reflect a positive image as police officers and representatives of the police department. The police uniform identifies the officer or civilian representative and makes him readily accessible to the public. It is important, therefore, that the personnel of the department maintain a neat and clean appearance, and that the uniform serves as an appropriate introduction to the members of the community.

This policy and the following procedures pertain to all members of the Truro Police Department and will be used in conjunction with the TPD Fiscal Year Calendar, which indicates when uniform changes occur. If an officer or employee does not fall under any category, the Chief of Police shall designate the clothing to be worn by this individual. (Revised December 15, 2002)

PROCEDURES:

- 1. CLEANLINESS AND NEATNESS: Uniforms shall be kept neat, clean, and well pressed at all times. Care should be taken not to wear threadbare or faded items.
- 2. PERSONAL CLEANLINESS: Members of the department shall keep their bodies, particularly their hands and fingernails, as clean as circumstances will permit.
- 3. CIVILIAN CLOTHING:
 - A. All employees permitted to wear civilian clothing during a tour of duty shall conform to standards acceptable for normal business wear in private business firms. The Chief of Police may require employees to dress in a more formal or less formal manner as circumstances dictate. Clothing that is suggestive or offensive is prohibited.

- B. COURT APPEARANCES: Officers scheduled for work and court shall wear their assigned dress uniform. Officers not scheduled to work may wear dress civilian attire. All officers scheduled for Jury Trial shall wear civilian dress attire, regardless if they are working or not. Class C and D uniforms (see matrix) are not permitted when appearing as a witness for Court.
- C. OTHER CLOTHING: The Chief, Lieutenant or the Staff Sergeant may prescribe other types of clothing when necessary to meet particular police objectives.
- D. CIVILIAN CLOTHING NOT TO BE WORN WITH UNIFORM: Civilian clothing will not be worn with any distinguishable part of the police uniform unless otherwise directed by a supervisor.
- 4. TIES: Shall be issued by the Chief of Police. Ties shall be worn with all long sleeve shirts, except Street Gear uniforms.
- 5. HATS: Shall be worn by all officers while working in uniform, and assigned to outside details, foot patrol, ceremonial functions, or a fixed post, i.e., school crossing posts, traffic control at a fire, accident scene, specific traffic assignments, etc.
- 6. HIGH VISIBILITY CLOTHING TO BE WORN WHILE DIRECTING TRAFFIC: All officers shall wear high visibility clothing while directing traffic. The following uniform garments will satisfy this requirement: Revised April 24, 2010
- A. Reflective yellow traffic belt;
- B. Reflective yellow raincoat (in appropriate weather)
- 7. RAINCOAT: Each officer shall have a full-length reversible raincoat (reflective orange/black or yellow/black). Short reversible raincoats are permitted. The type and brand are to be approved by Chief of Police. Either raincoat may be stenciled with "Truro Police" lettering and may be equipped with additional reflective tape.
- 8. UNIFORM SCHEDULE: The fiscal year calendar shall dictate when uniforms are to be worn, with respect to dates posted in advance by the Chief of Police. The attached uniform matrix indicates allowed uniform combinations for department personnel.

9. UNIFORM SPECIFICATIONS:
